EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows: At the end of page 3 of the specification, the following text was inserted:

This amendment was necessitated by the applicant's omission of a description of fig. 3A and 3B and applicant's failure to correct this when it was pointed out in the office action of 3-30-2005.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Kaj Olsen whose telephone number is (571) 272-1344. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 5:30 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. and on alternate Fridays.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Nam Nguyen, can be reached on 571-272-1342. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is (571) 273-8300.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The instant invention differs from the prior art of record in that the capillary electrophoretic separation is performed under a cyclic temperature ramp. Li and Schell disclose conducting capillary electrophoresis with a temperature ramp in order to better resolve DNA mutations, but do not disclose repeating or cycling the temperature ramp. Chow discloses exposing a DNA sample to a repeating temperature cycle in order to amplify the DNA strands and subsequently electrophoretically separating the sample. The prior art of record neither suggests nor renders obvious the step of cycling the temperature ramp while simultaneously separating the sample.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to R. Michelle Vestal whose telephone number is (571) 272-0524. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday, 8am-4:30pm.
